Hamilton Public Library Customer Satisfaction Survey Privacy Statement

Hamilton Public Library is committed to respecting your privacy and protecting your personal information.

All information is treated as confidential. There are no mandatory questions. You may choose to opt-out of some (or all) of the survey questions if you are not comfortable with providing a response.

The combined responses of all survey respondents will be used by Library staff to determine customer satisfaction opportunities and trends.

Summary results, consisting of overall response data, may be published from time-to-time. At no time will we publish information that would reveal the identity of individual respondents or their responses.

During the completion of the survey, you may optionally provide your Email address. If you choose to provide your Email address, we will use this information strictly for the purpose of sending annual Email reminders regarding updating your survey responses. Other personal information, if provided, is used strictly to track trends in customer satisfaction by comparing current and previous responses.

Certain socio-demographic data is used for purposes of validating the survey sample and for determining the statistical significance of survey results.

For information regarding this policy or your privacy, please contact:
